

The mission of the Florida Atlantic University Foundation, Inc. is to encourage, promote, and provide funds and other resources for the benefit of Florida Atlantic University (FAU) in furtherance of its missions and purposes and to secure the application of these funds in the best manner adapted to the conditions of time and to the needs of FAU. Florida Atlantic University is a multi-campus public research university that pursues excellence in its missions of research, scholarship, creative activity, teaching, and active engagement with its communities.